Author Bio:

Roland Allnach has been writing since his teens, but did not actively seek publication until 2007. He has numerous published short stories to his credit, one of which was a 2010 Pushcart Prize nominee, as well as three prior award winning books, Remnant (2010), Oddities & Entities (2012), and Prism (2014). In 2015 he saw publication of two titles, The Digital Now and The Writer's Primer. His literary inspirations arise from classic literature, history, and mythology, and his aim is to invest his stories and characters with a complexity and depth that continue to reward upon repeated readings. Writing aside, his joy in life is the time he spends with his family.
